

SPECIAL SNEAK PREVIEW SCREENING

TUESDAY, MARCH 20 / BYRD THEATRE

March is Women's History Month and Pocahontas Reframed – Native American Storytellers Film Festival is proud to present two films about Amazing and Historically Important Native Women: Wilma Mankiller and Pearl Carter Scott.

MANKILLER / 7:00PM

This is the story of an American legend, Wilma Mankiller, who overcame rampant sexism and personal challenges to emerge as the Cherokee Nation's first woman Principal Chief in 1985.

PEARL / 8:30PM

Beautifully filmed, impeccably portrayed, the feature film "Pearl", a production of the Chickasaw Nation, brings to life the endearing story of Pearl Carter Scott - Chickasaw aviatrix.

Free admission to both films with French Film Festival VIP PASS.
Otherwise regular Byrd Theatre price at the door.
